"If it were your fondest wish to travel in Africa and see the wonders of its wildlife and vast landscapes, you couldn't do better than to join Paul Renner on one of his photo-safaris.

Being a native of Tanzania and speaking the native language, he's the ideal host of the ideal safari.

Pamela and I, having been on two of Paul's safaris, (and this was Michael's third) couldn't more highly recommend him for the trip of a lifetime. " Michael Crook
